Serial No.

Representation no. 01 of 1947 M. W. Manager to be discussed in the Budget session of the R.A. 1948 Re: Reservation of posts of probationers and Dy. Comrs for Depressed class graduates.

Subj

(1) Kind reference is invited to para 217 of the Gen. circulars and Standing orders which relates to the rules ~~regarding~~ regarding qualifications, mode of selection etc of candidates for appointment as probationers except in the case of Probationers for the Military Department

i) Candidates should be graduates and natives of Mysore and unless they are already in service, should not ordinarily be over 25 years of age,

ii) Selection will be made from the following classes of persons:-

'(a) Candidates who have passed the Civil Service examination but have been unable to secure sufficiently high place to be appointed to the cadre of Asst. Comrs

(b) Distinguished graduates selected from University pass lists

(c) Graduates already in service possessing special merit

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

Serial No.

(d) Graduates belonging to Communities not adequately represented in the public Service

(iii) The number to be recruited from the different classes of candidates enumerated above will be as follows :—

(a) About one-third of the appointments will be reserved for Selected graduates already in Govt. Service.

(b) About one-third of the appointments will be made with the object of equalising the representation of Communities in the Service

(c) The remaining appointments will be made from the pass lists of the Civil Service and University degree examination.

(2) The present representation that 25% of the probationers' appointments made for several departments be reserved for graduates of Depressed class community and that two posts of Dy. Comrs. reserved for officers belonging to the Depressed classes.

In view of Rule 217 (iii) regarding number to be recruited. It is for consideration whether the vacancies may be reserved for any one community. The promotions to the cadre of Dy. Comrs. are based on seniority coupled with merit.

(3) It is for orders whether the discussions on the representation may be watched.

8/5 (4) Please put up the list of probationers taken in 1946 indicating those belonging to the Depressed Classes.

Mary 10/5/48.

(5) Copies of orders relating to the appointment of probationary Assistant Commissioners and other probationers in the year 1946 are placed below. The names of candidates belonging to the depressed class communities are underlined in red ink.

10/5. (6) Reservation of two posts of Dy. Commissioners for the Depressed Classes appears to be out of question for the reason that there is no direct recruitment to that cadre.

11/5/48 (7) Reservation of 25 p.c. of probationary appointments for that class is a question of policy. (8) The discussion in the representation may be watched.
